MARTINEZ – City Manager, Brad Kilger, today announced the hiring of Anne Cardwell as the Assistant City Manager for the City of Martinez. For the last three years, she has served as the Assistant City Manager in Benicia, with oversight responsibilities for the administrative services departments (i.e., Finance, Human Resources, and Information Technology). She is known in the City for her professionalism and leadership in the departments she oversees, as well as throughout the organization.

Cardwell is a graduate of UC Berkeley and has a Bachelor's degree in Psychology. She completed her Master's work at UCLA in Educational Psychology.

"I am very grateful to have served the community of Benicia for the past thirteen years, but I'm also really looking forward to working for the City of Martinez. I am honored to have been selected for this position and excited to take on this new opportunity."

City Manager, Brad Kilger, noted "the City is very fortunate to get someone with Ms. Cardwell's extensive background and breadth of experience. We look forward to having Anne on board."

Cardwell will assume her new position on September 26, 2016.
