New Business

The Commissioner Zamaria informed the commission regarding the welcome home event at the V.A. Hospital on May 9, 2009 from noon to 4 p.m. and would like to see fellow commission to make an appearance. Commissioner Zamaria has been speaking to fellow veterans about joining the Veterans Commission. Commissioner Minjack-Evans hoped that anyone who would consider joining the commission would sit in on commission meeting. The commission discussed options regarding different ways to recruit new members for the commission.

The Commission discussed a beautification project at the Veterans Hall, on Court and Ward Street.

Commissioner Minjack-Evan will be writing a personal letter on behalf of the Veterans Commission to the City's corporation yard, thanking the crews for all of their hard work at the Veterans Monument on Alhambra Ave.

Commissioner's Matters

Commissioner Minjack-Evans wanted to make sure that the flags will be flying at half-staff for Memorial Day.

Commissioner Minjack-Evans would like to have a scrap book for each Holiday and display it at the Veterans Hall. Commissioner Zamaria offered his photographs for her project.

Commission thanked the soon to retire, Deputy Director, Joann Tool, for all of her hard work, participation and service with the commission. The commission said they will miss her and her commitment to the Veterans Commission and the Veterans in our city.
